PETERSBURG, April 20.

MR. Finch, the British Plenipotentiary, having judg'd that if new Attempts were made to find out a Passage to the East Indies by the North, they might be more successful than the former, the Ministry assured him that if the British Court would find proper Persons for this Undertaking, they should receive all possible Assistance from them. The Memoirs of Capt. Spanberg and other Persons whom the Court sent to Camschatska about this Discovery, have been communicated to Mr. Finch, who took a Copy of them in order to send it to London.

Madrid, April 20. O S. The King having resolved, either by Force of Arms or Negotiations, to make good his pretensions to certain States in Italy, and procure a proper Settlement there for the Infant Don Philip, it is not doubted but his Royal Highness will go thither in a little Time with the Princess his Consort.

Cadiz, April 22. O. S. The nine Men of War which sailed from hence some time ago, returned hither Yesterday, after having convoyed to a certain Latitude the Register Ships which are gone from hence to the West-Indies. They have brought back with them three English Prizes, viz. the Two Brothers of forty Tons, the Postilion of one hundred and fifty Tons, and the Nassau of one hundred and twenty Tons. These nine Men of War still cruize at the Entrance of the Bay, and will continue to do so until eight others, which are equipping with the utmost Diligence, are ready. These last are to join the above nine, and to compose the Squadron designed to convoy the Troops into Italy; which will consist of 6000 Horse, besides other Forces, that are all assembling in Catalonia, whither the Duke of Montemar will set out in eight or ten Days to head them; and 'tis not doubted but the Infant Don Philip will quickly follow, his Equipage being ready; to which Squadron some of the King's Gallies will likewise be added. Advice has been received, that the three Ships which went from Ferrol under the Command of M. d'Antenil, having met with a Storm, one of them had put into Vigo in a very bad Condition, and the two others in Corunna. Advice has also been received, that the Ship called the Mantazero, which was at St. Domingo, sailed from thence the 26th of January, under the Convoy of two French Men of War.

Madrid, April 28. O. S. Councils are frequently held upon Affairs relating to the Expedition into Italy. The King has appointed the Duke d'Astrisco and the Marquisses de Crevecœur and de la Torres, to command the Cavalry to be employed therein. 'Tis confirmed, that the Duke de Montemar will set out in eight or ten Days to take upon him the Command of the Troops assembled in Catalonia; and it's not doubted but the Infant Don Philip will follow him in a few Days.

Barcelona. May 4: The Ships freighted here are sailed to take on board the Artillery and Troops that are in the Island of Majorca; but whether they are to carry them back to Catalonia or elsewhere, is not known.

Paris, May 11. O. S. They write from Genoa of the 23d of April, that it was reported there that an Alliance was concluded between France, Spain, and the King of Sardinia; and that a Passage into Italy was to be granted to the Troops of his Catholick Majesty.

Paris, May 18. The King having reviewed his Guards immediately returned to Marly, whence frequent Councils and Conferences are kept on the Dispatches, which the Court and foreign Ministers almost daily receive. Mean while it is assured that his Majesty is firmly resolved to avoid a War with all his might, and assist others in so laudable a purpose, but that in case of impossibility, he had taken such measures that his Troops could take the Field upon the first Notice. 'Tis said the Count de Bellisle is daily expected at Marly, to make Report of his Commissions at several Courts of Germany, after which he is to return to Francfort, to assist at the Imperial Election, for which Bavaria will be one of the principal Candidates.

Hague, May 28. It is confirmed here, that a Treaty is concluded between the King of Great-Britain, the Courts of Vienna, Petersburg and Dresden, in order to support the Pragmatick Sanction.

Bristol, May 3. Capt. Whitefield of the Brislington (Brother to Parson Whitefield) of this Port, bound from Carolina to Oporto, has taken a Spanish Merchantship, aud carried her into Oporto.

Hague May 20. Some Letters from Persons of good Credit at Paris say, that there is not altogether so good an Understanding between the Court of France and that of Great-Britain, as some People imagine: There appears to be in each of them such a Quantity of Leaven, as will probably, sooner or later, ferment so, as to cause a Rupture between the two Nations; particularly, if Great-Britain should send to the Succour of Russia a Squadron into the Baltick; where, it's assured, the King of France will send one to the Assistance of the Swedes. France is very jealous of the good Understanding which prevails between the Courts of Great-Britain, Russia, and the States General. She is still apprehensive of a League being enter'd into in the North, which would have a great Influence upon the Affairs of the Empire, where it seems as tho' the Ministry of France would not be sorry to see still more Divisions. There is, it's said, a considerable one arisen between the King of Prussia, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony.

Versailles, June 6. N. S. Four extraordinary Couriers are arrived here from Madrid, within these few Days; and one in particular last Night, who had Orders to deliver his Dispatches into Cardinal Fleury's own Hands; so that he was introduced introduc'd at two o'Clock in the Morning into his Eminency's Bedchamber, who this Day communicated his Diſpatches to the King. What the Contents are cannot be affirm'd, but 'tis ſaid the Courts of Spain inſiſts more than ever upon ſpeedy and powerful Succours, to oblige the Engliſh to ſtop the Progreſs of their Arms in America. On the other Hand, the King is ſtill for purſuing the Plan of Pacification, which the Cardinal never loſes ſight of, but is inconceivably aſſiduous to make it ſucceed. We hope that a certain Power which can give very great Weight to this Negotiation, will not be haſty in eſpouſing the Quarrel of either Party, and that the Armaments it is making, are only to be guarded againſt all manner of Surprize. Mean while no Time is loſt in compleating our Troops. Beſides thoſe that are on Foot, viz. 122 Regiments of Infantry, 60 of Cavalry, 15 of Dragoons, the Fuſileers and Free Companies, there's a Talk of raiſing 10 more Regiments of Foot, four of Horſe, two of Dragoons, one of Huſſars, and ſeveral Free Companies.

Leghorn, June 9. By a Felucca arrived here from Marſeilles we hear that an Edict has been publiſh'd there as well as at Toulon, authorizing all the Inhabitants along the Coaſt of Provence, to fit out Ships for making Repriſals on the Bey and Subjects of Tunis. --- The Quarrel with the Bey of Tunis may turn out very luckily for France, by giving her an Opportunity to have a great Number of Privateers in Readineſs to deſtroy all our Mediterranean Trade, whenever ſhe thinks it time to break with us; and then we may thank our ſagacious Temporiſers and Negotiators for not taking long ago vigorous Meaſures to drive the French out of Corſica.

Great Quantities of Tobacco and Brandy have been bro't hither purſuant to the Orders of the Regency, for the Uſe of a Britiſh Squadron, which, 'tis ſaid, is expected in this Port.

It is reported, that 7000 Spaniards are to be tranſported forthwith to Corſica, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that Iſland.

Petersburg, June 12. The Court has received News that the whole Swediſh Fleet, conſiſting of 26 Sail, had been perceived between Revel and Stockland, and that they ſtopt all the Ships which paſs'd that Way, but let them keep their Courſe, after having taken out of them what Proviſions they thought proper, for which they paid them ready Money; it has thereupon been reſolved, that an Expreſs ſhould be ſent to Hanover and London, in order to demand, that the 12 Men of War which the Court of Great Britain has engaged to ſend to the Aſſiſtance of Ruſſia, be ſent with all Expedition.

Hanover, June 27. It is reported, that our Troops will ſhortly begin their March, and that his Majeſty propoſes to command his Army in Perſon.

London, May 26. This Day the Flag of Don Blaſs the Spaniſh Admiral, which was taken from on board the ſaid Admiral's Ship at Carthagena, being forty Feet long and of a breadth proportionable, was ſpread on the Floor of the Preſence-Chamber at St. James's, and was reviewed by the Royal Family, and ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction.

The ſame Day the Lords of the Regency met at the Cockpit, when General Wade and ſeveral other Officers to be employed abroad, attended for Orders.

June 13. The Troops to go abroad from hence, which are upwards of 10,000 Men, Officers included, 'tis ſaid are to go into the Imperial Garriſons in the Auſtrian Netherlands.

They write from Marſeilles, that 18 French Men of War were actually fitting out at Toulon, to ſail on a ſecret Expedition.

The Troops deſign'd for Flanders have received Orders to encamp immediately within ſeven Miles of Colcheſter, in order for Embarkation.

We are informed that a certain Foreign Miniſter here having demanded a categorical Anſwer concerning the Fleet which is ſaid to be fitting out for the Baltick, he was told, That his Majeſty was determined to ſend a certain Number of Ships of War to ſecure the Peace of the North, which his Majeſty had Reaſon to apprehend was intended to be diſturbed by certain Powers of Europe.

Yeſterday came Advice from Gibraltar, that on the 15th of May, O. S. his Majeſty's Ship the Salisbury was to ſail for England with the Leghorn Fleet under her Convoy, but having Advice that nine Sail of Spaniſh Men of War were ſail'd from Cadiz, it was judged not proper to ſail till the return of an Expreſs ſent to Admiral Haddock at Port-Mahon. The Vernon Privateer, Capt. Willis, reported to be taken and carried into Ferrol, was well at Gibraltar the 15th ult. and had taken and brought in there a French Ship bound from Ferrol to Cadiz, having on board 30 Pieces of Cannon for the Spaniards; and one of our 20 Gun Ships had taken another French Ship going on the ſame Errand, with 20 Pieces of Cannon.

Orders are ſent to the Ordnance-Office, to expedite the Stores intended to be ſent to the Squadron under the Command of Admiral Haddock; and to the Garriſons of Gibraltar and Port-Mahon.

The St. Joſeph Prize, purchas'd by a Maiden Lady in Kent, for 300 l. having been dock'd at Deptford, and fitted for a Privateer, in order to cruize againſt the Spaniards; the Command of her is given to Capt. Commyns lately in the Guiney Trade; ſhe carries 300 Men, mounts 50 Guns, her lower Tier to carry 24 Pounders each. She is reckon'd the ſtouteſt Ship that has been fitted out on that Occaſion ſince the War began.

June 16. Letters from Portſmouth adviſe, that upon a ſtrict Examination of the Priſoners taken on board the Spaniſh Privateer the Biſcaia, by his Majeſty's Ship Rupert, the French Officer, who, in cool Blood, moſt barbarouſly ſhot Col. Brathwaite of Carolina thro' the Head, after they had taken the Ship in which he was Paſſenger, was diſcover'd, and, on the Evidence of two Spaniards who were Eye-Witneſſes of the Murder, clapt into Priſon.

The Biſcaia Privateer, the ſecond Spaniſh Prize taken by the Rupert Man of War, is come up the River to the Limehouſe, and juſtly engages the Attention of Mariners that have view'd her who are ſurprized that ſo ill-deviſed and contemptible a Veſſel ſhould have made ſuch Havock among our Merchant-Ships. The Gazette allows ſhe has taken 23 Engliſh Prizes ſince the Commencement of the War.

LONDON, June 26.

Princeſs Carolina, riding off Caſtillo Granda, in the Harbour of Carthagena, April 25. 1741.

Dear Sir,

MY laſt to you in this Harbour was in the Beginning of this Month, when I was in hopes to have been able to have given you a better Account of the Concluſion here. I thank God I can ſay, as far as could be depended upon the Sea to do, or was practicable that Way, was carried to the Butts End, we have entirely deſtroyed all their Shipping, and ſhall leave all the Forts that guarded the Harbour entirely demoliſhed. I likewiſe took Care to ſecure, by my Ships, ſafe Landing for the Army as near Carthagena as they would deſire, without their having as much as a ſingle Muſket Shot fir'd at them, and to land all their Artillery and whatever they deſir'd afterwards; and when they had ſtay'd as long as they cared for, I took the ſame Care of their Re-embarkation, without their having one Musket-Shot fired at them, by having my Ships well poſted to cover them. And as Army Proceedings are not Part of my Province, I chuſe to leave that to their Relation, --- Sickneſs, and the Want of Water, were the principal Reaſons alledg'd for their thinking it impracticable for them to proceed farther; and it is certain that Sickneſs is become very general among their Forces

Forces.---Since the Re-embarkation we are now preparing to return to Jamaica, with all poſſible Expedition that ſo large a Train will admit of, that will require Time, to get them out of a Harbour of ſo narrow an Entrance. As there will be a Neceſſity for a great Part of my Fleet going home this Summer, I have Hopes of ſoon receiving Orders to come home with them myſelf, with which I ſhould be very well pleas'd, being heartily ſick of a conjunctive Expedition with an Army. Thro' God's great Mercy I continue to enjoy a great State of Health to enable me to go thro' the burthenſome Fatigue of this Command, which hardly allows me Leiſure to think of any Thing elſe.

My laſt publick Letters are of the 25th of December, I hope to hear you are all well upon my Return to Jamaica.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c.

There is no Need to ſay from whom this Letter comes.

On the 21ſt Inſtant Sir John Norris arrived at Spithead, and hoiſted his Flag on board the Victory.

June 27. We hear that the Commiſſioners of the Navy have contracted for ſix thouſand Tons of Shipping and want ſix thouſand Tons more, to carry Stores and ten thouſand Land Forces, amongſt which, it's ſaid, there are to be eight old Regiments to reinforce Admiral Vernon in the Weſt-Indies; and that they will firſt attack the Iſland of Cuba, and after that pay another Viſit to Carthagena. Some ſay the Lord Mark Kerr and others General Dalzell, will have the Command of theſe Forces, both being Gentlemen of great Experience in Military Affairs.

We hear that on Thurſday Night Sir John Norris with his Fleet, ſail'd from Spithead with a fair Wind ſteering Weſtward.

Letters from Barcelona adviſe, that there are upwards of 100 Ships of different Nations which have been hired for the King's Service without reckoning thoſe in the other Ports of Catalonia, and the neighbouring Provinces.

According to the Inſtructions lately ſent to Don Navarre at Ferrol, he is ordered to leave that Port about the End of of June, and to ſet out with his Squadron for the Mediterranean, after being reinforc'd with ſeveral Ships which were to join him in a certain Latitude. Among thoſe Veſſels are thoſe equipping at Cadiz; and 'tis ſaid, that after this Union his Squadron will conſiſt of 25 Sail.

BOSTON, Auguſt 24.

We are informed by Capt. Prince, that Sir John Norris was ſailed upon a ſecret Expedition with a Squadron of Eleven Sail of Capital Ships, none leſs than 80 Guns, and the general Opinion was, that he was gone to Ferrol, or ſome other Port of Spain. He further ſays, that no Fleet was gone to the Baltick, and that 'twas queſtioned whether any would go this Year or no, either French or Engliſh.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 31.

On Saturday laſt John Ury, the Romiſh Prieſt (ſo often mentioned in the News Papers) was executed, according to Sentence paſſed againſt him. He appeared at the Gallows with a very compoſed Countenance; he kneeled down and prayed very devoutly. And in his Prayer to God he denyed the Facts witneſſed againſt him, ſo he prayed that it would pleaſe Almighty God to cauſe ſome viſible conſtraint upon the Witneſſes, to manifeſt to the World, that what they had witneſſed againſt him was falſe. Then he made a Speech to the Spectators (having a written Paper in his Hat) declaring before God and to the World, That he dyed Innocently. And with the ſame ſteady and compoſed Countenance and Behaviour pull'd off his Wig and gave it to his Friend, then he and his Friend ſettled the Rope about his Neck, then he put on his Cap, and deſired his Friend to tye his Handkerchief over his Eyes. Which done, the Cart drove away, and he dyed.
